We are thrilled you have chosen Cherry to consign your clothes!

Please read, initial and sign the following sales agreement effective August 10th, 2009.

Consignment Agreement

Consignor's Initials

- 1. I ("Consignor") authorize Cherry ("Consignee") to sell any and all goods assigned. _____
- 2. All consigned clothing must be recently cleaned, pressed and in excellent condition. Clothing must be on hangers. _____
- 3. Consignor and Consignee may consult on pricing, especially on unique items, but the final sales price will be determined by Cherry. _____
- 4. Consignee will retain 60% of commission on all goods sold. Consignor's account will be credited 40% of the final sales price. _____
- 5. Any items not sold within 60 days must be picked up by Consignor. Any unsold items left in the store after 60 days become the property of Consignee and may be sold or donated. _____
- 6. Consignor may pick up their unsold items during or at the end of the 60 day consignment period outlined above. It is the Consignor's responsibility to retrieve their unsold items. _____
- 7. All checks will be available for pick up during business hours. Checks are valid for 180 days and are the sole responsibility of the Consignor to pick up. Any checks that expire after 180 days will be considered abandoned and forfeited by Consignor, and will be voided with no replacement check issued. _____
- 8. Risk or Loss: Consignor leaves all items at his or her own risk. Consignee shall not be held responsible for the loss, destruction of, or damage to consigned items. In the event of such an occurrence, Consignee may refer to the "off premises" section of his/her homeowner's insurance policy. _____
- 9. These simple sales guidelines represent the agreement between the Consignor and the Consignee, and may not be modified unless in writing and signed by the Consigner. _____
